LARGE CROWD SEES RELEASE OF PRIZE FISH

"Fanny," Valued at $200, Heads List of Fish Put in Chain o' Lakes

A large crowd of fishermen, sports enthusiasts and just plain spectators accompanied the big water brigade that planted the prize fish in the Chain o' Lakes on Antioch's "Oscar and Fanny Day," Sunday.

Heading the list of Chicago American prize fish released was Fanny, a $200 bass. Numerous other prize fish ranging in value from $1 to $50, were also released.

Quite a few rumors to the effect that one of the big prize fish had been caught have already created excitement at the various resorts, but while some of the smaller prize fish have been caught, Oscar, with $500 on his head, and Fanny are still at large.

Start Delayed

The flotilla of boats leading the parade for "Fanny Day," sponsored by the Hub of the Lakes Region Antioch, was to have started from Regener's resort and Jim Hanrahan's place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The start was delayed for about 2 hours, however, although with no appreciable lessening of enthusiasm.

The route followed led from Grass lake to Lake Killarney and then, respectively, to Petite, Bluff, Lake Marie, Channel and Lake Catherine.

The Antioch Lions Club, Antioch business men and resort owners cooperated in making "Fanny Day" a success.

Lions club committeemen included Dr. D. N. Deering, President W. I. Scott, Adolph Kucera and James Horan. They were among the party in the large passenger boats loaned by Jim Hanrahan, Ray Regener and others.

In Convoy

Conveying the flotilla were launches of the State Department of Conservation, in which were Chief Inspector Anthony Maggio and assistant, James Lynch; also Jack Little ("Brooks Lake") and H. H. Beck, staff members of the Chicago American.

A photograph showing the release of some of the prize fish appeared in Tuesday's Chicago American.

Deputies Seek Party Who Damaged Counter

Sheriff's deputies today are looking for a trio who damaged a fountain in the Antioch cafe Wednesday morning. According to report, two women entered the cafe shortly before 8 o'clock to purchase coffee. The counter which one was handing across the counter slipped from her hands, cracking a marble slab.

The two women hurriedly re-entered the automobile in which a man companion was waiting for them outside, and drove off.

An investigation showed that the license number on their car was issued to M. Mastro, 6246 N. Talman avenue, Chicago.

Dr. Warriner, Ackerman Hurt in Auto Accident

Dr. W. W. Warriner of Antioch and Charles N. Ackerman, Indian Point, are convalescing in Victory Memorial hospital, Waukegan, from injuries suffered Friday when an automobile driven by Ackerman collided with a truck which was making a left turn into a farm driveway.

Dr. Warriner, who suffered bruises and possible internal injuries, is expected to return to his home in about a week if his present rate of improvement continues.

Ackerman had a fracture of the left arm and cuts on his right arm and leg.

Holstein Breeders Hold Picnic at Diamond Lake

The Lake County Holstein Breeders' association is holding its annual "Black and White" show today in the picnic grounds at Diamond Lake.

The choosing of a "Milk Maid Queen" was to be a feature.

C. Hunt, H. Wegner, the Beckman brothers, M. Poltrin, E. Elsbury and Andrew Maggiera are the committee for the cattle entries. James Beatty, Walworth county agricultural agent, is judging the cattle. The committee on prizes consists of Herbert Meyer, C. A. Faulkner, Horace Kapple, W. J. Swayer and Ken Munsen.

C. L. Kutil of Antioch, G. Glen and James Davis are supervising the judging events. On the publicity committee are Charles Wray, H. C. Glickerson and Les White.

Urbana Couple Take Over Howard Eat Shop

Mr. and Mrs. John Atkinson of Urbana are taking over the management of Howard's White Oak restaurant and fountain service at 900 Main st.

The eat shop was opened by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Howard this spring in the new building which they constructed at that location, and which was completed in March. Mr. and Mrs. Howard have built up an excellent clientele during this short time, but wish to devote their time entirely to their 20-acre country place and truck farm at Camp Lake. They will, however, retain their interests in the Howard building, which also houses the Vogue shop.

Mr. Atkinson has been manager of Pechin's confectionery store at Urbana for the past five years, and has been employed at the store for the past 10. Both he and Mrs. Atkinson attended the University of Illinois, and Mrs. Atkinson is a graduate of that institution.

Mrs. Jyrch Dies; Would be 74 July 1

Mrs. Bertha Jyrch, who was born in Germany July 1, 1865, died Tuesday at her home in Antioch, only 10 days before she would have celebrated her seventy-fourth birthday anniversary. She was united in marriage to Karl E. Jyrch in Berlin, Sept. 28, 1885.

They came to the United States the following year, and lived in Chicago until 1918, when they moved to Petite lake, where Mrs. Jyrch has maintained a summer home until the present time. The couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary here on Sept. 28, 1935. Mr. Jyrch at that time was 73 and his wife 70. Mr. Jyrch's death occurred on March 30, 1936, at Melbourne, Florida, where they were spending the winter.

Surviving them are a son, Karl E. Jr., of Chicago, and four daughters, Mrs. Richard Pogose and Mrs. James Erickson and Miss Grace T. Jyrch, Antioch.

Others who were honored were Adams of Harvard, Arndt of Marengo and Shields from Sugar Grove.

HOST OF FRIENDS CONGRATULATE JAMES' ON GOLDEN WEDDING

Open House at Home Is Attended by More Than 100 Friends

Not one, but two golden wedding cakes helped to make memorable the fiftieth wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. James, who held open house at their home, 441 Orchard street, on Sunday.

A surprise part of the celebration was a wedding dinner arranged by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. James of Chicago, and held at Brass Ball corners. Gilded candles, bearing a huge "50" at their base, stood at either side of the cake at this dinner, and all of the appointments were carried out in gold and white.

The table was set for 12, including Mrs. Bertha Louise Gilbert, daughter of the J. C. James; Mrs. Lottie Miller, mother of Mrs. Ralph James; Ralph James, Jr., and sister, Winifred; Edward Gilbert, son of Louise, as she is best known to her friends; Mrs. Ida Osmond; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Olson, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Ralph James.

Message from Hollywood

After dinner the party returned to the home on Orchard street, which was bowered with flowers sent by well wishers of the couple. About 100 friends, including many who had known the James' since the early days of their marriage, called during the afternoon and early evening.

Many gifts and messages also came from friends at a distance.

A telephone call from Gale Page, movie actress in Hollywood who is a pupil of Louise Gilbert was the greeting from the farthest away. Irene Castle McLaughlin, who is a friend of Louise, sent a huge basket of white and gold flowers bearing a white streamer with "Congratulations" in gold letters, and many other beautiful floral tokens were received.

Reception Guests

Among the many old friends of the couple who were present were Dr. and Mrs. Webster Richardson, Brown's lake; Charles Van Patten, Mr. and Mrs. Sol La Plante, Mrs. Elberta Strahan, Mrs. Amanda Cribb, A. J. Johnson, Mrs. Selma Rhymmer, Mrs. John Sibley, Mrs. Maud Sabin, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Anderson, Mrs. Drucilla Ferris, Mrs. Anna Kelly, Miss Ella Ames, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Runyard, Dr. and Mrs. Roy D. Mrs. Alonzo Runyard, Dorothy, Jeanette and Shirley Miller.

Mrs. Gilbert was in charge of the arrangements in the home, where a 28-inch wedding cake weighing 25 pounds, with a bride-and-bridegroom atop, towered from the dining room table to the chandelier above it. Gold 50-year emblems and other table appointments in gold completed the dining room decorations.

On Monday afternoon, Mrs. James entertained 35 members of the Methodist Ladies' Aid society at her home.

Radio Tribute

Jack Baker paid tribute to the couple in his WCFL broadcast, Saturday morning by singing "O Promise Me" in their honor. He also called attention to the fact that Mr. and Mrs. James (continued on page 5)

TILL DEBT DUE US PART

Alarm Sounds; Firemen Are All Ready for It

The Antioch fire department got under way even faster than the usual record time when an alarm was turned in Monday evening that a tractor was on fire on the Lake Catherine road.

The alarm came opportunely just at the close of a meeting at which the firemen has assembled to make plans for their June festival on Monday.

At the first sound of the siren, the station doors flew open and the truck with its load of fire ladders roared out, to the admiration of spectators who wondered "where they all came from so fast."

They put out the fire.

Fred Swansons to Attend National Shrine Gathering

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Swanson will leave Sunday to attend the national Shrine convention which opens in Baltimore, Md., on Monday, June 26. They also plan to visit the World's Fair in New York before returning to Antioch.

Swanson is captain of the guard at Medinah temple and first in line from Lake county for elevation to the exalted office of Potentate.

Three special trains for the Medinah temple membership will leave Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. The return trip will be made over the New York Central line on July 1.

The Shriners will march from Medinah to the Grand Central station at 1:45 p. m. Sunday.

Antioch feels kindly toward Medinah temple, because of the many close connections of membership and other ties, and this feeling has been reciprocated in various ways.

Girl Scouts Plan to Attend Camp

This year Louise Elms, Marion Myers, Frances Zimmerman and possibly others will attend the Girl Scout camp near Elkhorn. Word has been received here that just a few reservations are left.

Last week a meeting was held by the creek.

Two weeks ago a "Thursday Guest Hike" was taken. Fifteen scouts with their guests attended.

Several girls are ready to be invested as Tenderfoot and Second Class Scouts.

15 Girls Enrolled in 4-H Club

Fifteen girls are now enrolled in the Antioch 4-H club.

Last week the second meeting was held June 14, at the high school.

Talks which were given were:

"How to Fit and Alter a Pattern"—Lila Dalgaard.

"Proper Care of Teeth"—Kathleen Fields.

"Tailor Tacks and How to Lay, Fit and Cut a Pattern"—Doris Strang.

Piano Solo—Mabel Lou Hunter.

Work was done on their dresses, after which games were enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Childers and son, Glenn, are leaving Saturday for Madison, Wis., where Mr. Childers will take a summer course at the University of Wisconsin.

"The Antioch Volunteer Fire department requests your presence at the annual gathering of county firemen, their ladies and invited guests in connection with the monthly meeting of the Lake County Firemen's association"—so read the 300 invitations being sent out for the annual June festival the local firemen will sponsor on Monday.

Patrick Kelly, of the Firemen's pension board of Chicago, is to be the speaker at an open meeting to be held in St. Ignatius' Guild hall at 8 p. m.

The visiting firemen, their ladies and guests will assemble at the fire station from 5 to 6 o'clock. A supper at 6 o'clock in the Chevrolet garage, a demonstration by the Sons of the American Legion drum and bugle corps, and the open meeting are among the highlights of the evening.

Dancing on Main street, which will be covered with canvas, will follow, at 9 o'clock.

Minto Named to Co. Board of Review

D. Harold Minto of Antioch township has been appointed to succeed Mayor Frank J. Ronan of Highland Park as a member of the Lake county board of review. He will serve for a two year term.

Minto's appointment marks the first recognition of Antioch township on the review board for 26 years. Frank Huber served as a Democratic minority member in 1913, and he also was an appointee of Judge Perry L. Persons who at that date had just recently ascended to the county judgeship, the position he has not relinquished for over a quarter of a century.

At an organization meeting of the board Monday morning in Waukegan, Lew A. Hendee was named chief clerk.

The board, composed of Leo F. Fenlon, chairman of the county board of supervisors; Edward G. Anderson, Waukegan, and Minto, accompanied by Hendee, attended the sixth annual conference of the Illinois tax commission Tuesday.

Since none of the assessors' books had been turned over to the board, no hearings or investigations were held prior to its departure for Springfield.

Attends Custodian School at N. W. U.

Charles Anderson, janitor at Antioch Grade school, left today to attend a three-day school custodians' course at Northwestern university. The course, which is a new one, is designed to draw attention to the important part the custodian's work plays in the school system. It will include studies in the care of school buildings, the care of floors, management of furnaces and boilers, and methods of cleaning.

Antioch Groups to Take Part in Jack Benny Fete

The American Legion firing squad and the Sons of the Legion drum and bugle corps from Antioch will take part in the Jack Benny parade in Waukegan Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock. A number of persons from here and from surrounding communities are planning to attend the celebration.

HUGE PARK AREA AROUND LAKES IS PLANNED BY STATE

Speaker Forecasts Project at Dedication of New Johnsbury Bridge

The state's plans for developing the lakes area in McHenry and Lake counties into "one of the finest parks in the middlewest" were outlined by F. Lynden Smith, director of the state department of public works and buildings, at the dedication of the new $127,833 bridge over Fox river at Johnsbury on Sunday. Several hundred persons visited the community to view the new bridge during the day.

In his talk, Mr. Smith announced the state's plans to purchase 414 acres of land on the west side of Grass lake north of Fox lake, to add to its present holdings of 3,200 acres in Chain o' Lakes State park.

Condemnation proceedings to obtain other desirable park land have been instituted he said, observing that the state hopes to develop a vast recreation area from the Wisconsin line south to the McHenry dam.

Dam to Aid

The $125,000 dam which is to be built at McHenry is expected to serve the double purpose of maintaining boating depths in the entire chain of lakes and also to help control flood waters in times of emergency, he explained.

The speaker predicted vast benefits to Lake and McHenry counties through the park development program—in increased real estate values, increased revenues from tourist trade and greater recreation facilities.

State's Attorney William M. Carroll, Woodstock, and Representative Thomas A. Bolger, McHenry, were other speakers at the dedication.

Re-decorating of School Will Start

A contract for re-decorating work at Antioch Grade school has been let out to Nelson and Drury of Antioch and work on re-painting a part of each building will begin in a short time.

Bids are also being taken for constructing a cement sidewalk from the sidewalk along Depot street to the new school building. Minor repairs will be made, including the replacing of a door in the first grade room opening on the concrete terrace.

The redecoration will include painting the halls, toilets, and the lower part of the walls in the school rooms.

Work in one of the buildings is to be completed by August 1; in the other by August 15.

Future Farmers Exhibit Lambs at Chicago Show

Three members of the Antioch chapter, Future Farmers of America, and their instructor, C. L. Kutil, attended the Chicago Fat Lamb show which was held in the amphitheatre at the Union Stock yards Tuesday and Wednesday.

Each of the boys, Robert White, Edward McNamara and Albert Smith, exhibited a lamb. These lambs when sold after the show brought $10.50 per cwt., 25 cents higher than the top in the regular day's market.

The boys were given a regular course of instruction in livestock marketing, and were in charge of the sale of their own lambs.

'round the Resorts

A grand opening with a good orchestra furnishing the music for dancing will be the attraction this Saturday evening at Adolph's Channel Inn, (formerly Barth's) located on Route 173 at Channel Lake. The new proprietor is A. C. Helm, recent purchaser of the place. He was formerly located at 2408 St. Charles Road, Bellwood. He announces that he will feature dining and dancing, and good food may be had always at the Channel Inn.

There is a serious shortage of "help" around the resorts right now, according to many of the resort owners at the lakes around Antioch. Summer residents at the lakes and townspeople also report that there is a need for more domestic help.

The Grass Lake Conservation club will hold a "Ham and Bacon" shoot at Haling's resort Sunday. There will be 10 target events at 16 yards, and prizes will include hams, bacons or their equivalents in fishing tackle, Charles Haling announces.

Do We Want Democracy?

"If we want democracy we cannot dispose of our responsibilities by marching to the polls once in a while and giving lip service to the Bill of Rights," writes Carl Dreher in Harper's. "If we want democracy we have to work at it. We have to accept the idea of politics as every citizen's primary and unremitting concern, as our business in a very concrete and personal sense."

We have left politics to the politicians—and what a mess has resulted! We have regarded government as something in which we have no direct interest, and the consequence has been a steady extension of bureaucratic power at the expense of us all. We've worked on the principal of "Let George do it"—and George has done us in, good and plenty!

Not until we all realize that government is our business, will be have the fair, efficient and economical government that is essential to democracy.

Non-Political Farm Relief

The farm problem is essentially a problem of increasing agriculture's cash income. Government has been wrestling with that problem for many years. It has passed scores of farm relief bills. And every one of them has been more or less a failure.

Today, among thinking farmers, the value of agricultural legislation is being heavily discounted. Such legislation is necessarily transitory. It is the product, often, of political deals dominated by special interests. And the result is that the farmer is looking less to Washington for aid—and more to his own organizations.

The growth of the cooperative marketing organizations furnishes evidence of this. They have grown remarkably in membership—and, even more important, they have grown in influence. They are gradually increasing agriculture's income by using sound business principals as their tools—something political farm relief has failed to do.

An Object Lesson

"Private business has been primarily responsible for every dollar of wealth that has been created in the United States and for every job that exists," says the Mansfield, Ohio, News-Journal.

Ignorance or deliberate disregard of that fact has been a prime cause of prolonged depression. Private business has been attacked and reviled and the result has been less earnings and fewer jobs.

"Weights on Andy Jackson's Grave"

In a recent column, Paul Mallon, the well-known Washington commentator, said: "Weights will probably be placed on Andy Jackson's grave so he cannot arise against these three new financing proposals which would come somewhere near creating a quasi United States Bank (the Mead bill for small business loan insurance, the capital financing proposal for big loans and the public works financing for building.)"

It may be that some of these proposals are designed to serve a necessary and deserving end. But there is a very evident danger in a method of achieving such an end which further extends the power of government over the banking structure.

The money in America's banks belongs to the people. And, under our private banking system, it is controlled by the people. No type of business is more thoroughly or more stringently regulated in the public interest. Every conceivable safeguard has been created to assure the depositor safety for his savings.

A very different situation would obtain once politics got banking firmly under its thumb. It would be possible to use the money of the people for any political ends desired. The existing safeguards would necessarily be weakened. And the public—with its millions of bank accounts, and its billions of savings—would be the goat.

TRUTH about ADVERTISING

By CHARLES B. ROTH

CAN YOU READ LATIN?

THE law used to recognize the doctrine of Caveat emptor.

That is Latin. It means "let the buyer beware." The doctrine for which it stood was simply this: Whenever you bought from another it was your responsibility to see that you got your money's worth, not his.

If he were a dishonest man and wanted to cheat you, you had to protect yourself. The law wouldn't help. "Let the buyer beware," Charles Roth said. Caveat emptor.

That doctrine, as unsound doctrines always must, has given way to a better one. The modern business man, if he expects to remain in business and warrant your patronage year after year, doesn't expect you to protect yourself.

He assumes the obligation of protecting you. He makes sure that his quality is high. He religiously subjects his product to tests. He introduces improvements. And he establishes a price which is the minimum on which he can remain in business.

For this change, which is one of the most important improvements in business, advertising has been largely responsible. Advertising has given a permanent quality to business. A man who advertises must be scrupulous in his integrity. He cannot write lies. He has to live up to all claims. This means that you, as a customer, can buy from such a man with absolute confidence.

Not long ago Owen D. Young, one of America's clearest thinkers and a great business executive, declared that:

"Dishonesty in various forms is becoming rarer in business. Whenever it occurs it is exploited in newspapers, because it is the unusual, not the common, thing. "A store keeper may short-measure or short-weight his customer and make a little. He may even induce a clerk to short-measure or short-weight. But he cannot build a big business on that basis. Honesty and uprightness must exist in great business organizations."

And it must also exist in smaller business organizations, which expect to grow large.

Whenever a business man advertises, it is a sign that he wants to operate an honest business, one from which you can buy with confidence and trust.

Advertising is thus the guiding-light which you can follow in getting more for your money.

Daily it leads millions of American customers to better values, to greater satisfaction, to the serenity which comes from dealing with men and organizations they know they can trust.

The Colossal caves are about 27 miles southeast of Tucson, Ariz. Rivaling in beauty and size the Carlsbad caves of New Mexico, this natural wonder has for many years remained almost unknown to travelers. But in recent years the caves and surrounding area have been improved under the supervision of the national park service. The ceiling is ornamented with intricate silver webbing. There are stalactites of translucent calcite. Many of these are so hard that if struck with the hand they ring like chimes. In some places the stalactites and stalagmites have joined and the result is columns of unusual shapes.

PAUL REVIEWS HIS LIFE

LESSON TEXT—Philippians 1:12-14, 21-24; 3:12-14; II Timothy 4:7, 8.
GOLDEN TEXT—I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.—II Timothy 4:7.

Self-examination may be a most profitable experience if carried out in the right spirit and for a good purpose. It may be very humbling to look at one's experiences and accomplishments in honest appraisal, but the very humility which is thus brought about may be the first step toward better things and may prove to be a real means of blessing.

Paul, whose life we have been studying together for the last three months, made a review of his own life and experience in various places in his epistles. We cannot study them all, but in the brief portions before us we find that the apostle had laid hold of those certainties without which life is largely meaningless and useless. He had found victory over both himself and his circumstances. He was perfectly clear about his eternal destiny. He had a goal toward which his life was directed in earnest endeavor, and he had in view the reward which was to be his when he met his God. What an excellent opportunity we have to bring out the truth as related to ourselves on this coming Lord's Day.

I. Living Above Circumstances (Phil. 1:12-14).

Paul had been imprisoned for the gospel's sake. Did that stop him? No, for he made the very guards who were assigned to watch him at his house the objects of his ministry and they, in turn, became missionaries of the cross. He sought to win each one as he took his designated period of guard service and then sent him out as a testimony to "the whole Praetorian guard and to all the rest" (v. 13, R. V.). What a consistent and glowing Christian life Paul must have lived day by day.

Not only were some of his Christian brethren encouraged by his example to preach the gospel, but we note in verse 15 that others, taking advantage of the fact that Paul was in prison, went out to preach just to show that they were as good as he, making their very preaching an expression of their envy of his popularity. Paul showed victory over circumstances by thanking God that the gospel was preached, even though it was done in a wrong spirit.

II. Facing Eternity With Joy (Phil. 1:21, 24).

To Paul, departure from this life would mean his entering into perfect fellowship with Christ and unlimited service for Him. He therefore had a strong desire to depart and to be with the Lord. He would not, however, turn away from his present privilege and duty. If it was God's will that he should abide in the flesh, he purposed that it should be literally true of him that to live is Christ. If that be true in a man's life, then it must necessarily follow that to die is gain. The reason men fear death is that in place of saying "to live is Christ," they say "to live is money," "position," "pleasure," or even "sin."

III. Pressing Toward the Goal (Phil. 3:12-14).

These are the words of the man who possibly was the greatest Christian and Christian worker of all time. Was he satisfied with himself? No, the Spirit of Christ in him and the vision of the goal which he had not yet attained made him press on.

The spiritually minded Christian has no word of commendation for past success, he gives Christ the glory. He does not permit past failures to hold him back, for they have been put under the blood. He is not content merely to hold his own, for he knows that to stand still is to go back. Christian friends, let us by God's blessing and grace take a forward step today, and tomorrow, and the day after, that we may, like Paul, press on toward the goal to the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Scripture speaks frequently of the reward which shall come to the faithful Christian at the close of a life of holiness and service for Christ. It is no doubt commendable that Christians do not often speak of their reward, for it should be true of every servant of Christ that the love of Christ should constrain him. On the other hand, it is important that we keep before us the fact that at the end of the road there is recognition by "the Lord, the righteous Judge," and that we may properly look forward to the receiving of the crown of righteousness from His hand. The life of the Christian has glorious meaning from beginning to end, yes, and on through all eternity!

Christ's Power

One of the undeniable miracles of Christian history is the mystic power of the disciples of Christ to remain faithful to Him in spite of all possible temptations to desert the faith.

Jane Warriner Becomes Bride In Garden Ceremony

Numerous Other Pretty Weddings Are Held During Week-end

Although the automobile accident in which Dr. Winsor W. Warriner of Antioch was hurt Friday cast a shadow over the happiness of preparations he and Mrs. Warriner had been making for the marriage of their daughter Jane on Saturday, it was felt that because of the extensive preparations that had been made and the distance many of the guests had traveled, there should be no postponement of the services.

Accordingly, Jane McVey Warriner and George Page Scully, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Scully of Peoria, carried out his wishes and pledged their nuptial vows Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, standing before a bower of white blossoms in the garden at the Warriner home. The doctor was unable to be present, but his best wishes were relayed from Victory Memorial hospital, from which he expects to return to his home within the next week.

The Rev. Warren C. Henslee, pastor of the Antioch Methodist church, read the service in the presence of a large gathering of the couple's relatives and friends, including the Chase Scullys from California, other guests from Florida, Michigan, Lake Forest, Winnetka and Chicago, and a number of Jane's and George's school friends from the University of Illinois, which both attended.

For her wedding gown the bride had chosen point d'esprit over white satin, with which she wore a tulle veil and carried white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. John Hartmeyer (Betty Warriner) of Chicago, who attended her sister as matron of honor, was in hyacinth blue marquisette, and her flowers were gardenias and sweetheart roses.

John C. Scully, Jr., of Peoria served as best man for his brother.

Mrs. Warriner was gowned in lavender, with slippers of matching shade and a shoulder corsage of purple orchids. Her hat was of lavender and purple.

Blue lace was worn by Mrs. Scully to complete the pretty picture in blues, lavenders and white which the wedding formed.

Afterward a reception for 75 guests was held in the Warriner home. The decorations there were carried out entirely in white and silver, with candelabra and tall candles and a bouquet of white canterbury bells forming the centerpiece for a white-and-silver table service.

A bridal dinner for 35 was also held at the Warriner home, on Friday evening, when the bride-to-be wore a charming "gypsy" frock in white and deep purple, and a diamond-and-emerald bracelet, the gift of the bridegroom. Mrs. Warriner wore a flowered print evening gown for this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Scully, who plan to make their home in Peoria, are now on a four weeks' tour of the eastern states and Canada. The former Miss Warriner was a member of Alpha Phi sorority at Illinois, and the bridegroom was affiliated with Alpha Delta Phi.

Peterson - Curlee

Of much interest to Antioch residents was the ceremony at which Miss Bertha Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peterson, Antioch, and Richard Curlee, son of Mrs. R. A. Curlee, Waukegan, were united in marriage. The service took place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the Lady Chapel of Christ Church. Dean Howard E. Ganster officiated.

The bride, who was presented in marriage by her father, wore white marquisette, shirred at the waist, and a fingertip length veil which fell from a lace Juliet cap. She carried a white prayer book with satin streamers and lilies of the valley.

Blue organza was worn by the maid of honor, Miss Doris Curlee, sister of the bridegroom. Her cap of seed pearls had a net blush veil, and pink rosebuds and baby's breath were combined in her colonial bouquet.

The flower girls were June and Virginia Petersen, nieces of the bride, who were frocked in pink and blue net with sashes of contrasting color and carried colonial bouquets of sweet peas, delphinium and baby's breath. Norman Peterson, brother of the bride, was best man. Earnest Lawrence, Bloomington, Walter Nagode, Harry Rice and Kenneth Fosberg, Waukegan, ushered.

A reception was held in Waukegan and Mr. and Mrs. Curlee left afterward on a trip to northern Wisconsin. On their return they will reside in the Genesee apartment building.

The bride, a graduate of Antioch Township High School, has been employed in the offices of the Illinois Bell Telephone company in Waukegan. Mr. Curlee, who is employed in Curlee's Drug Store in Waukegan,

The bride's white point d'esprit gown was fashioned along colonial lines, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Also colonial in style was the lilac net gown worn by her matron of honor, Mrs. Francis Bart. Mrs. Bart, a sister of the bridegroom, carried Talisman roses.

Attending the bridegroom was Russell Luedtke, brother of the bride.

A reception for Antioch and Chicago relatives and intimate friends of the two families was held in the Chicago Beach hotel, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott left afterward on a trip to northern Wisconsin. They plan to make their home in Chicago.

The former Miss Luedtke is a graduate of the Muscatine, Ia., high school and attended a nurse's training school in Bloomington, Ill., for a year. Up to the time of her marriage she was employed in Chicago.

HATCH EARLY, GET PROMPT PRODUCERS

Pullets Should Come Into Late Summer Yield.

By Dr. W. C. Thompson, Poultry Department, Rutgers University, WNU Service.

Plan spring egg hatches so that there will be pullets starting production for the duration of the late summer and fall months for a more nearly balanced income through the year.

Judging from the experiences of many hundreds of poultrymen during recent years it would seem to be an economical and efficient practice to plan to bring off approximately 25 per cent of the total number of chicks desired during 1939 as early hatched, so that the pullets from those hatches will come into egg yield in late July or during August. Such early-hatched Leghorn pullets would reach first egg about August 1 and continue in satisfactory production until mid-November. If such early-hatched pullets are put under artificial lights in the late fall, a tendency toward partial molt and a somewhat reduced egg yield can probably be avoided.

Late summer or early fall egg prices are usually good, for the supply of fresh eggs at that season is often low. To be able to take advantage of that situation the poultryman would do well to consider starting his chick season early. Another advantage of having 25 per cent of the chicks early-hatched is that it makes possible a more economical and efficient use of incubation and brooder equipment.

Colt Gains Most Weight During the First Year

More than 50 per cent of the total increase in weight from birth to maturity occurs during the first year of a colt's life. Seventy-five per cent of the increase in depth of chest takes place during the same period. This means that adequate feeding is essential if the proper growth of the skeleton is to take place, asserts an authority in the Michigan Farmer.

Colts that are being raised for sale are in greater demand if they are kept in good condition. Liberal feeding of grain and hay will accomplish this. On the other hand colts will develop into good farm work horses if they are fed limited grain rations but are allowed plenty of good hay. This system is economical and produces horses that are sound in their feet and legs. A good grain mixture for the first two years consists of two parts by weight of corn, two parts oats and one part wheat bran. Mixed hays, such as timothy-alfalfa and timothy-clover, are satisfactory. Good pasture helps reduce the amount of grain and hay needed and results in cheaper production. Provide salt as needed and have plenty of fresh water available at all times.

Food and Drink

California orange growers have an easy method of applying fertilizers to their groves, according to the Country Home Magazine. They dump them into the irrigation stream and let the water do the work. Some of them buy their nitrogen fertilizer in the form of compressed ammonia gas, which comes in 150-pound cylinders. The cylinder valves are opened just enough to allow the ammonia to bubble out slowly into the water, which rapidly absorbs it and carries it down the irrigation furrow.

Making Chicks Grow

Growing chickens need some form of vitamin A to make satisfactory growth. Birds allowed to range about the farm during the growing season usually pick up sufficient quantities of green feed, but birds confined should have some feed that is rich in vitamin A. Alfalfa-leaf meal is one of the most economical sources of vitamin A, when all feeds must be purchased, and may serve as the sole source of this vitamin.

In the Feed Lot

Colorful reminder of early cattle days, brands still are a symbol of ownership in the West.

Losses caused by internal parasites of sheep can be reduced if the flock is treated before being turned on pasture.

Ohio experiments show that it is possible to grow more feed nutrients per acre with a "grass" rotation than with a "grain" rotation.

Radios in poultry cars now lull the chickens to sleep, says a Nebraskan in the Wolbach Messenger.

Battery brooders provide a good means of starting chicks, especially where large numbers of chicks are handled and where several different hatches are made.

For control of scaly leg mites dip the infected legs in pure kerosene, taking care not to wet the skin or feathers. Crude petroleum is also very effective for this purpose.

The Observer

"Happy" Lange, vegetable vendor and man-about-town, was enjoying his usual carefree existence Tuesday evening when local pranksters placed some kind of torpedo under the hood of his truck. When the happy one returned from across the street and set his foot against the starter there was a screeching sound ending in a mighty explosion, all to the great amusement of the spectators gathered about to see the fun. Well, they just "didn't have no fun." Happy lifted the car's hood to let the smoke out and then smilingly drove away. You just can't bother some men—least of all Happy.

A young British couple vacationing in this country observe that "Americans are too busy chasing the dollar to pay attention to cultural things." They don't chase dollars in Britain. They chase pounds, shillings — and pence.

The sinking of an American, a British and a French submarine, one after another, seems almost too much of a coincidence to be a coincidence.

Safety engineers of the Employers Mutual Liability Insurance company in a recent bulletin point out that Accident never takes a holiday. One set of hazards is merely replaced by another as the seasons change.

Spring is melting into summer, and everybody knows what summer hazards are. But we shall remind you of them anyway. Some unpleasant things, if remembered in this delightful season of baseball, fishing, golf, and gardening, will allow the season to pass less painfully.

So don't forget: Heat prostration, heat stroke, and sunstroke. Avoid them by doing what the doctors have said again and again—summer hygiene, summer diet, plenty of salt when exerting yourself on hot days.

Water accidents. Remember the precautions to be taken even though you can swim. Don't swim directly after a heavy meal or allow your swimming appetite to get beyond your actual prowess. And your conduct in boats—know what you are about and something of how to handle them with a minimum of danger to yourself and others.

Bachelor Hunts Wife, Tries Farm Aid Body

The administration does not deal with bachelor cases, so the letter was put aside, pending further consideration.

HUNTS DAD'S GRAVE, FINDS HIM LIVING

Woman Holds Reunion With Sire, 'Dead' 45 Years.

CHICAGO.—A father "dead" for 45 years greeted his daughter in the German Old People's home in Forest Park.

Confused but affectionate, Louis Wolter, 77 years old, assured his daughter, Mrs. Elsie Petersen, 46 years old, of 6231 North Francisco avenue, that he was hale, hearty and happily married to his fourth wife, Minnie.

Mrs. Petersen had been told by her mother, Mrs. Hulda Verkler, that her father died when she was an infant.

Unsatisfied, Mrs. Petersen last week proceeded to investigate and visited the family lot in Concordia cemetery. Her husband, Walter, and her son, Edward, who is 21, accompanied her.

No trace of the father's grave could be found. Then Mrs. Petersen sought assistance from the cemetery superintendent who, rather surprised, told her she had the wrong address. "Louis Wolter? Why, he lives next door in the German Old People's home," he said.

Puzzled, Mrs. Petersen returned home and demanded of her mother, who lives with her, a clarification of the mystery. The replies she received, she said, were evasive.

Intent on settling the matter, Mrs. Petersen visited the Old People's home and revealed her identity to her father. Mr. Wolter wept as he held his daughter in his arms. He had last seen her as a baby, just learning to walk.

"Every day for a long time," he told her, "your mother carried you past my carpentry shop. But she never stopped."

Mrs. Petersen's parents were divorced shortly after she was born, she learned.

GOLDEN WEDDING

(Continued from page 1.) had lived for 50 years on the same street in the same town, and had resided in the same house for 42 years. Other tributes included a poem written by Mrs. Arthur Mapletorpe in honor of the occasion.

Mrs. W. W. Warriner brought the orchids she wore at her daughter, Jane's, wedding Saturday for Mrs. James to wear at the reception, so that they figured in two weddings, with a span of a half-century between them within two days.

Mr. and Mrs. James' fiftieth anniversary was the second golden wedding that has been celebrated in their house. Thirty-six years ago last Jan. 26, they helped Mr. James' parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. C. James, sr., celebrate their golden wedding.

"I remember it well," sighs "young Mrs. James." "We had 75 for dinner."

To Attend Reunion
On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. James plan to go to Milwaukee for a reunion of the James family and a meeting of the "Joseph Christopher James" club, made up of members of the family bearing that name—a traditional many generations.

Mr. James' family came to America in 1836, and among prized heirlooms now in his possession are antique musical instruments which they played, including the rare "ophicleide" a "grand-daddy of all jazz instruments" and dating from about 1720 - 1780. The James' are, however, comparative newcomers in America in relation to Mrs. James' ancestors, the Burks, who are among the "old families" of Virginia, having come to the "colonies" more than 200 years ago.

As a young woman, Mrs. James was a talented painter, and many of the pictures about the home which were admired by visitors at the reception Sunday were painted by her years ago.

Use of Car Couplers

Railroads first started changing from the pin and link coupling when Ezra Miller patented his automatic coupler in 1863. By 1870 it was in general use in the middle and western states and a few years later in use on most of the railroads in the United States. The Pennsylvania railroad in 1878 made the Janney coupler, which was patented by E. H. Janney in 1877, standard equipment for its passenger cars. In 1887 a recommendation of the Master Car Builders' association for the adoption of vertical plane couplers discontinued the use of the pin and link couplers on all roads. The Janney coupler was made standard by this association in 1888.

TAR OIL EMULSION FOR APPLE APHIS

Spraying Early Advised to Kill Eggs on Trees.

By Arthur J. Farley, Professor of Pomology, Rutgers University, WNU Service.

Any period of warm weather in the spring is an ideal time for the application of a tar oil emulsion spray for the control of apple aphids. This material, if applied at the proper strength, will kill the aphid eggs now on the trees.

The stock emulsion, as received from the manufacturer or dealer, will contain 66, 83 or 98 per cent actual tar oil. This should be diluted to provide 2.5 per cent actual tar oil in the diluted spray. Growers who have had difficulty controlling the apple aphids would do well to apply one of the tar oil emulsions while the trees are dormant and the temperature is above freezing, since the treatment offers one of the most effective methods of control.

Plans for applying tar oil emulsion should be made early enough to insure the completion of the job by the time the fruit buds appear silvery, since the use of such a mixture after that stage of bud development may cause serious injury. Furthermore, the application of excessive amounts of material should be avoided in the interest of safety and economy. It is important, however, that the trees be completely coated with the spray, since any aphid eggs which are missed will not be killed. Best results are obtained by floating the material into the tree with the wind in the form of a fine mist.

Many Reasons Why the Hen Lays Eggs on Floor

Floor eggs are objectionable for many reasons. They are likely to be broken and bring about the egg eating habit. Then, too, they are often fouled. And of great importance to R. O. P. breeders, they cannot be credited to the hens that lay them.

The primary reason for floor laying is lack of sufficient nests, advises a poultryman in the Montreal Herald. If a hen is ready to lay and the nests are all occupied she will do the next best thing—lay on the floor. So the first preventive measure is to provide plenty of nests.

Another reason is comfort. If a hen ignores an empty nest and lays on the floor, she is probably more comfortable there.

The type of trap door may be another reason for floor eggs. There is usually a higher percentage of such eggs where the nests are equipped with the old type swinging door that is held in place with a trigger. This makes a rather cumbersome trap and the hens appear to fight shy of it. Either thin plywood or metal drops seem to be least objectionable, being light, easily worked and positive.

Watch for Corn Bugs

With a large amount of stored corn, it is especially important to watch for insect damage, says the Prairie Farmer. The two past mild winters have caused such insects to increase. Dry corn, stored in a dry crib, well ventilated, is not likely to be damaged by insects. First indications of damage can be detected by finding holes in the ends and along the sides of the kernels. If a crib of corn becomes infested, it should be fed or sold, or if it is to be fumigated, must be shelled and treated in a tight bin.

Wire Fence 50 Years Old

It was an Illinois farmer named Peter Sommer who first tried to make woven wire fence, says the Keystone Steel & Wire company. That was 50 years ago. He first tried stretching smooth wires between posts, and weaving in cross wires by hand. That worked pretty well but took too long, so he developed a machine. Operated by two men and a boy, some 10 rods of fence could be made in a day. The fabric had small square openings.

Hard-Shell Hens

By selecting chicks from thick and thin-shelled eggs, respectively, poultry breeders at the University of California have developed two distinct lines of hens, one of which produces hard-shelled and the other soft-shelled eggs. A good laying flock then can be developed from the hard-shell hens, and the soft-shellers can go to pot.

Insectproofing Plants

According to the Country Home Magazine, modern greenhouse gardeners now keep plant lice and red spiders under control by feeding their crops poisonous chemicals which are more deadly to insects than to plants. Dr. V. H. Morris, of the Ohio Experiment station, employs sodium selenate for this purpose, adding one part of selenium per million to his culture solution weekly and satisfactory results have been reported.

Society Takes the Hurdles

Betty Mead, Lake Forest, atop Jamez, glides easily over the barrier at Onwentsla club where the Lake Forest Horse Show is being held this week, June 21 to 24. The event, one of the outstanding of the year, is attracting spectators and exhibitors from all parts of the Chicago metropolitan area. The net proceeds of the show will be donated to the Lake Forest Hospital association.

TRUTH about ADVERTISING

By CHARLES B. ROTH

AN EXPERIMENT IN HORSE-FEEDING

THERE'S an old story I have always liked. It is about the parsimonious Frenchman who rued the money he spent in feeding his horse.

After scheming and planning he hit upon an idea which would enable him to stop all that.

It was beautifully simple: Each day he would gradually cut down the amount of feed he gave the horse. He would cut it down so gradually, in fact, that the animal wouldn't ever realize he was being cheated.

The horse would thus become used to getting along on less. Eventually he would need no feed at all. Think of the money that would save!

The French genius scientifically set about carrying on the experiment. Several months later he was telling about it with pride in his voice. Did it work? asked a friend.

"Work? Oh, yes, indeed, it did!" he exclaimed. "It worked perfectly. Beautifully. The only trouble was that just about the time my horse got used to going without feed, he died."

We laugh at the benighted condition of a man with an idea as foolish as this, but many business men try to stop feeding their business "horse" by eliminating or cutting down on their advertising.

The fact is that advertising is the feed which keeps their business in robust health and full of energy and strength.

Many examples can be cited of the inevitable result of stopping advertising. Two will do. Forty years ago there was a remedy on the market which was America's biggest seller. It was widely, intelligently, consistently advertised. Its name was a household word. Then the founder of the business died. His heirs decided to cut out advertising because "our product is so well known people will have to buy it." The product passed out of the picture entirely.

Another was a fine, honest, well-made, well-advertised toilet soap, with all the good will any product could possibly need. The management of the business changed. The advertising stopped. Soon the product was no longer on the market.

The reason why advertising must be a continuous process is that we human beings need constant reminding. We're not fickle. But we are so filled with our own ideas and plans and businesses that if a man who wants our trade doesn't ask for it regularly and often, we drift elsewhere to the man who does.

The advertiser is faced by the problem of asking his customers to buy from him, but he also has to consider the most economical way of extending his invitation.

He finds the answer to both parts of this problem in the newspaper. No other form of advertising has ever been discovered which will carry his message so effectively for so little cost.

Hanged With Silken Rope

Lord Laurence Shirley Ferrers was the last nobleman in England to suffer a felon's death. He was tried for murder and pleaded insanity, but was found guilty, and dressed in a suit embroidered in silver he was taken in his own carriage from the Tower of London to Tyburn to be hanged. It is said that as a special concession to his request the rope used was of silk.

Counting Our Ancestors

Owing to the intermarriage of cousins through the ages, the number of one's direct ancestors does not double with each receding generation. If it did, cites a correspondent in Collier's Weekly, the number of everyone's ancestors back in 1100 A. D. would exceed the entire population of Europe at that time.

"Spotty" Helps Fisherman Land 21-lb. Northern Pike

Tangible evidence of the efficiency of "Spotty," the artificial frog invented by Dr. D. N. Deering of Antioch and distributed by the Antioch Bait company through Voedisch Brothers, Chicago, was produced by William Valters of Chicago when he caught a great northern pike weighing 21 pounds while on a canoe cruise through northern Minnesota and Canada.

Valters was a member of a party that included Howard Gaston, Antioch; Walter Valters, Chicago, and Reino Lindroos, Waukegan.

European Champion Will Enter Grayslake Wrestling

Pro wrestling will assume international importance in Lake county Friday night when Demitrios Saronis, the undisputed champion of all Europe, climbs through the ropes into the ring under the stars in Peg's arena near Grayslake to make his local debut against Hans Schnable, powerful German challenger, in one of two matches billed as a double wind-up.

Saronis, hailed as the most formidable wrestler to invade these shores since the days of George Hackenschmidt, was discovered by the former world's champion, Jim London, when the latter was touring Europe last summer. Boasting an unbroken string of victories in both the U. S. and Europe, the latest Greek sensation looms as the one wrestler who may be able to bowl over all the so-called world's champions and restore order to the chaotic condition of the wrestling game.

Hans Schnable, his tough opponent, needs no introduction to local sport followers who have seen the German Oak in action here all last summer with only a defeat at the hands of Ruffy Silverstein against him.

In the twin feature Jim McMillen, Antioch's own claim to sport fame, offers the acid test to up-and-coming Arthur von Saxon, German adonis who last week conquered rough-house Rudy Kay in the semi-final of the Silverstein-Matsura fray. Saxon has speed, cleverness, and a wonderful physique, and Pacific Coast sports writers are predicting a bright future for him in the padded square.

The preliminary events on the card are especially appetizing this week with Winnet (Wallingford) Watson, the gallant English star, discarding his monocle and top hat to attempt to shear the ex-sheep herder, bearded Mike London, in one of the 30 minute bouts, while "Jumping" Jack Claybourne, the Joe Louis of wrestling, will pit speed against brute strength in his bout with Phil Malloy, the 250 pound stockyard bully.

Ladies again are invited to attend free in the ringside section, with escorts. Box-office opens at 7:00 and the first bout starts at 8:30 p. m.

Receives Illinois "U" Numerals in Frosh Golf

Charles Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hawkins, Chain O' Lakes Country club, has just been notified that the Illinois university numerals he won in golf during the past year are being sent to him. Hawkins was a member of the freshman team.

Both Charles and Frederick left Monday for Champaign to play in the state amateur open golf tournament. The tournament opened Wednesday and will continue through Saturday.

Injured in Dive
A possible neck fracture was sustained by Wilson Camp, 29, of Chicago, when he dived into Diamond lake Sunday and struck bottom. Camp was taken to Condell Memorial hospital in Libertyville for attention. He had driven a bus-load of picnickers out from Chicago and was waiting until time for the return trip when he decided to go in swimming.

FARM TOPICS

EARLY GRAZING IS NEEDED FOR COWS

Fertilizing Small Area Is Found Good Plan.

By H. R. Cox, Extension Agronomist, New Jersey College of Agriculture, WRU Service.

Of the various measures which may be employed to furnish more and better pasture for a dairy herd, the fertilizing of a small area of the permanent pasture to furnish early spring grazing is one which is adapted to many farms. Although a fairly large quantity of fertilizer is needed per acre, the practice is economical in the long run provided the soil is good. The procedure is as follows:

In early spring apply from 800 to 1,200 pounds to the acre of a high nitrogen mixed fertilizer, such as 5-10-10, 5-10-5 or 5-8-7. An application of lime should also be made if the soil is strongly acid. The area treated should be one acre to every eight cows. Best results will be obtained if this fertilized area is fenced off from the rest of the pasture. Permanent grass pasture so treated may be turned on when the grass is four or five inches high, which should be about 10 days in advance of the time cows are normally turned out on untreated pasture.

This early grazing will save a considerable amount of barn feeding at a time of year when pasture is most welcome to the herd. About the time this treated area is grazed off, the untreated pasture is ready for grazing. After the grass on the treated area has made a renewal growth, the cows are returned to it. This method of rotation grazing conserves pasture, since it reduces tramping to a minimum. A further benefit is that the phosphoric acid and potash in the fertilizer would exert a beneficial effect for several years to come.

If the same area were given an additional application of sulphate of ammonia or nitrate of soda about June 1, at the rate of 200 pounds per acre, additional benefits would be derived. In a dry summer, not much effect could be expected from this second application during the hot weather, but the fall growth of the grass should be increased and the pasture season should be lengthened somewhat in the fall.

'Epidemic Tremor' New Worry for Poultry Men

A disease known as "epidemic tremor" is one of the newest to cause concern to the poultryman. It was described in 1932 by Dr. Jones of the Harvard Medical school. Since that time it has become fairly widespread.

It was given the name "tremor" because of the characteristic symptom, tremor or vibration of the head and neck. One poultry authority, in describing what is believed to be the same disease, called it the "jitters." The technical name, however, is far more dignified—"infectious avian encephalomyelitis."

It is one of those diseases caused by an infectious, filtrable virus. It can be transmitted from a diseased to a healthy chick by inoculation of material from the brain.

Chicks sometimes show symptoms as soon as 24 or 48 hours after hatching. It is usually a week before outstanding symptoms are noticed. The first sign is a dullness of the eye.

What's Found in Straw

Straw supplies nutrient elements as well as organic matter, according to Associate Agronomist J. W. Ames of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment station, who goes on to say that a ton of straw will furnish about 10 pounds of nitrogen, four pounds of phosphoric acid, 25 pounds of potash, and 1,800 pounds of organic matter. The best return from the fertility elements in straw is obtained when it is used as bedding and made into manure. Plenty of straw provides for maximum absorption of the liquid excrement that contains the most valuable part of the nitrogen and potash in manure.

Isolate New Horses

Horses newly purchased in preparation for spring work should be kept isolated from other horses for at least two weeks. This is particularly to guard against the danger of influenza, which may seriously impair the usefulness of all horses on the farm during the spring work season, says the Prairie Farmer. The disease is contagious, and caution should also be exercised in placing horses in strange stalls, where they may pick up such infection.

Keeping Roosts Clean

Cleaning the dropping boards under the roosts daily, or twice weekly, is important in maintaining healthy and sanitary conditions in the poultry house. If it is not possible to clean the house frequently, the droppings should be permitted to fall from the roost poles to the floor, several feet beneath. The birds then will be troubled less with odors and gases from the droppings. The space under the roosts should be fenced with wire netting.
